

A decorative border of orange pumpkin icons surrounds the page. The pumpkins are arranged in a grid-like pattern, with some overlapping at the corners and along the edges.

HALLOWEEN ACTIVITIES FOR MIDDLE SCHOOLS

- Make Halloween safety announcements each day leading up to Halloween. Make up your own or use the ones enclosed in this packet.
- Make table tent cards with Halloween safety tips for the cafeteria.
- Create a Halloween safety rap with friends! Share it with the student body during an assembly or other school wide event.
- Ask your science teacher to incorporate a Halloween science experiment in class and then discuss safety tips afterwards. Visit this link for the spookiest, slimiest, smokiest and coolest experiments:

- Create a spooky display near the school's main office. Display messaging like "A Safe Halloween is a Happy Halloween."
- Have a Halloween door design contest using Halloween safety messages.
- Dress up in Halloween costumes and give a Halloween safety skit or school-wide presentation on Halloween safety.
 - Discuss celebrating safely and making good decisions
 - Emphasize Halloween is a night for fun and not an excuse for mischief or vandalism
 - Discuss walking/biking safely on Halloween night for older students and safe trick-or-treating for younger students
- Have a Halloween safety poster design contest with traffic safety messages and display.
- Have students sign a Halloween safety pledge banner or poster pledging to be safe during Halloween that can be placed in the school cafeteria, gym or auditorium.
- Decorate the school bulletin board with Halloween traffic safety messages.
- Post Halloween safety traffic messages on the school marquee.
- Have students take a Halloween safety selfie wearing a t-shirt or sign they designed and share on social media. The message reflected should be about traffic safety.
- Have club members design Halloween safety t-shirts with different traffic safety messages and wear to school on the day before Halloween.
- Have the creative writing classes write traffic safety poems or stories for Halloween. Share in the school newsletter and on social media.
- Decorate a locker - cut out Halloween shapes (ghosts, pumpkins, etc.) and write Halloween traffic safety messages on them. Post on lockers, bathroom mirrors, and around the school.
- Work with the PTA or other school clubs to organize a Halloween carnival to give students a fun and safe place to go on Halloween.
- Emphasize to students that they can celebrate safely on Halloween and still have fun!
- Be creative, have fun, and come up with your own ideas.

Make it a spooktacular and safe Halloween!
